

Open 8:30 a. m.—Close 5:30 p. m.

LANSBURGH & BRO.

TODAY IS CLOVER TUESDAY

A DAY OF RARE ECONOMIES

—revealing unusual value-giving throughout the ENTIRE STORE.

Be here when the Store opens and take advantage of the wonderful bargains offered in every department.

EDUCATIONAL

Washington Business and Civil Service School, 1317 N. Y. Ave. N. W.

SPECIAL EVENING COURSE

Wire and Wireless

TELEGRAPH OPERATING

Opens Feb. 1. Closes June 2-15.

BLISS ELECTRICAL SCHOOL,

210 Takoma ave., Washington, D. C.

Thoroughly capable operators are in demand. First-class equipment. Experienced instructors. Catalogue on request. Phone Col. 2222.

ACCOUNTANCY.

Fundamentals of Accountancy. Shorter Courses in Accountancy, Business Administration, Practical C. R. A. Course, Cost Accounting, Law for Business Men offered. 1 to 2 1/2 years. Evening classes. 35-page bulletin. WASHINGTON SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTANCY, Y. M. C. A. 1736 G Street N. W.

International Conservatory of Music,

708 12th Street N. W., Main 8205.

Voice Culture, Singing, Piano and all other instruments. Theory and Harmony. Evening and day classes. 30 to 35 lessons. BOB E. E. MOHR, Director, HERST WIGGLES MAGNET, 12th St. N. W.

TRESSI STUDIO,

Voice Culture and Singing, OPERATIC CLASSES.

Students prepared for Gaiety and Operatic Stage. Ladies and gentlemen with good voices required for early production of operas. Fee terms and catalogue sent immediately on request. 1407 MASSACHUSETTS AVE.

Telephone N. 422.

L. A. CALLAN,

INSTRUCTION, RANGING, MACHINERY, GUITAR, 625 15th St. N. W. PHONE LINCOLN 106.

HARRY PATTERSON HOPKINS

Musical Director of Washington College, will give Evening and Friday afternoon private pupils. Studio, Belmont Theatre.

SINGING, ELIOTON,

MRS. EMILY FRECH BARNES, Line 1729, 148 11th St. N. E.

THE NEW HOTEL ANOVER

CLAUDE M. MOHR, JR. PHILADELPHIA, 12th and Arch

Centrally located, up to date and newly furnished.

Dollar a Day and up, $1.50 with bath. Single, double, triple, etc. Hotel, 12th and Arch, 5th St. N. W.

Club breakfast, 20c and up. Music with lunch, dinner, and supper. Write or wire for reservation.

NORFOLK & WASHINGTON STEAMBOAT COMPANY.

Palace Steamers "Northland" and "Southland."

Daily at 6:45 P. M. from Foot of Seventh St. S. W.

For OLD POINT COMFORT, NORFOLK and ALL POINTS SOUTH.

NEW YORK and BOSTON BY SEA. City Ticket Office, 15th St. N. W., Woodward Building.

Montenegrins Repulsed Austrians.

London, Jan. 11.—The Montenegrin contingent general today received an official dispatch from Cetinje stating that the Austrians made fierce attacks on the Montenegrin troops stationed on the heights above Cattaro on Thursday and Friday, but that all were repulsed with considerable loss to the enemy.

PANAMA EXPOSITION TOURS 1915

The Largest of World's Fairs, Covering an Area of 515 Acres, On the Palisades of the Pacific, Overlooking Golden Gate.

Travel in Comfort, on the NEW YORK-NEW ORLEANS LIMITED

SUNSET LIMITED

(Every day in the year—on extra fare)

Personal Conductors

Daily Tourist Sleeping Cars Without Charge

For literature and further information, apply to Washington-Sunset Route OFFICES: 1005 F St., 705 14th St.

California Expositions

via the Washington-Sunset Route

Washington New Orleans Los Angeles San Diego San Francisco

See San Diego First

With Its Unique Exposition Covering 618 Acres

Then, on to San Francisco, and the Panama-Pacific Exposition

The Largest of World's Fairs, Covering an Area of 515 Acres, On the Palisades of the Pacific, Overlooking Golden Gate.

Travel in Comfort, on the NEW YORK-NEW ORLEANS LIMITED

SUNSET LIMITED

(Every day in the year—on extra fare)

Personal Conductors

Daily Tourist Sleeping Cars Without Charge

For literature and further information, apply to Washington-Sunset Route OFFICES: 1005 F St., 705 14th St.

California Expositions

via the Washington-Sunset Route

Washington New Orleans Los Angeles San Diego San Francisco

See San Diego First

With Its Unique Exposition Covering 618 Acres

Then, on to San Francisco, and the Panama-Pacific Exposition

The Largest of World's Fairs, Covering an Area of 515 Acres, On the Palisades of the Pacific, Overlooking Golden Gate.

Travel in Comfort, on the NEW YORK-NEW ORLEANS LIMITED

SUNSET LIMITED

(Every day in the year—on extra fare)

Personal Conductors

Daily Tourist Sleeping Cars Without Charge

For literature and further information, apply to Washington-Sunset Route OFFICES: 1005 F St., 705 14th St.

CARRANZA LAWS WORRY BRITAIN

Ambassador at State Department, Following Latest Decree.

AMERICANS IN FLIGHT

Refugees Hasten from Monterey. Naco Dispute Settled. Special Agent Wires U. S.

Developments in Mexico indicate that Great Britain will have to make a sharp issue with the Carranza faction of the Mexican government.

Carranza's recent order suspending the operations of the vast oil interests of Lord Cowdray and others has been followed by a notice to the State Department yesterday that Carranza is now "nullifying all illegal sales of waters, forests and lands by local authorities," and especially as to lands sold "by the departments since December 1, 1915."

The British Ambassador was at the State Department yesterday, and it is understood he discussed the present trend of affairs under Carranza as affecting British railways, lands and oil interests.

It is admitted by local officials that Carranza should actually overthrow the Villa-Gutierrez regime, the United States would be drawn into the serious and dangerous controversies which Great Britain, Spain, France and the Netherlands have with Carranza by reason of his recent arbitrary decrees.

U. S. Agents to Quit.

It was reported at the State Department yesterday that two of Bryan's special agents in Mexico, George Carothers and Leon Canova, will soon enter upon a commercial career. Mr. Canova is now in Washington. He came here to make a report on general conditions. Bryan would not say today whether Canova was to return to Mexico. Carothers, whose resignation is being considered by the State Department, is at El Paso.

He telegraphed the department yesterday that he had arranged with Gen. Villa to secure a safe-conduct for the United States Naco difficulty. He says Gen. Villa will order Gen. Maytorena to sign Gen. Hugh Scott's propositions to create a neutral zone along the border, including Naco, and Gen. Scott has returned to Naco to conclude the arrangements.

Americans in Flight.

Other department dispatches say that Americans are leaving Monterey as refugees and are arriving at Nuevo Laredo. The refugees say Villa defeated the Carranzistas in the recent battle at Saltillo. The department is also informed from Mexico City that the national convention has chosen a new chairman, Gen. Gonzales Garcia, that it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.

Gen. E. N. Iturbide, whose escape from Mexico City, through the assistance of American special agents there, angered some of the Villa-Zapata leaders, has arrived in Washington. He yesterday sought the aid of the British Embassy in securing safe-conduct from Gen. Villa to enable him to return to his home in California. He said it met on the ninth and did nothing of importance, but that it would meet again.